SENIOR TRIP

COMMENTS

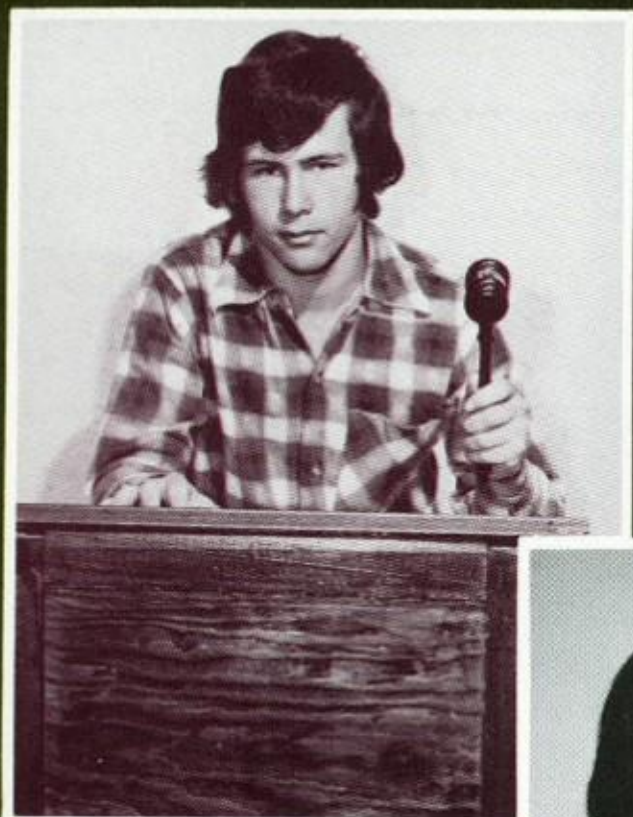

WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER MOST ABOUT THE PERSON YOU WERE WITH: stinky feet, Holy Beefatonia, hairy legs, pretty nice, zippers down, lovable and horny, Camera freak, everything, hand check, 7 minutes, Oh Romeo, wet underwear, getting tired, sleepy head, big mouth, those cigars, rubbing snuff, strange shoulders, missing boy friends, very loving, loud and roudy

IN MY ROOM MY ONLY THOUGHTS WERE . . . oh my gosh, those Playgirl pictures, HAH, will I ever get any sleep, wow what a great place to have a party, How to get down to Burketts room, why do I have to sleep with him, the sniper, look at all the feathers, why doesn't she let me get some sleep

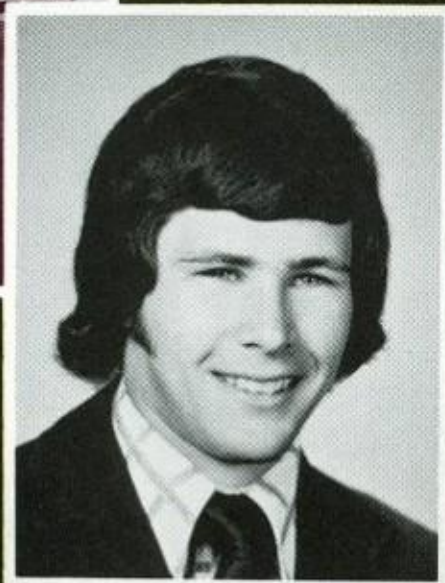

WHAT IS YOUR FIRST THOUGHT ABOUT THE BUS RIDE HOME: singing to Big Daddy Henry, not again, Kissy Kissy, crazy, the dark, going home to mom, the girls, all the kisses that weren't for the contest, listening to the dirty jokes, the kissing contest, the moment I waited for, no sleep

WHAT DO YOU REMEMBER MOST ABOUT THE ENTIRE TRIP: breaking the elevator, all the steps, chasing the squirrel, the sniper, the fatal gun shot, the bus ride home and the feathered pillows, eating at Scums, dancing with the umbrella lady, the sleep we didn't get, sleeping through the movie

IN MEMORY

DAVID DEAN MUSSELMAN

Born: November 12, 1958

Died: February 22, 1972

I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

John 11: 25

GOD'S HAND TOUCHED THEM AND THEY SLEPT

ROBERT MILLARD KING III

Born: January 13, 1959

Died: February 15, 1975

Sunset and evening star,
and one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep,
Turns again home.
Twilight and evening bell,
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crost the bar.

SENIOR DAYS... MEMORIES

The men of Ridge?!?

Would you believe we flunked Drivers Ed.?

But Mr. Meese, a little P.D.A. makes life so much more fun.

I just flunked "Building of Pyramids I."

I knew they were friends, but ...

THAT WILL LAST FOREVER

Two all beef patties . . .

"Are you still going to tell Miss McGreevey??"

"We just can't face another physics test today."

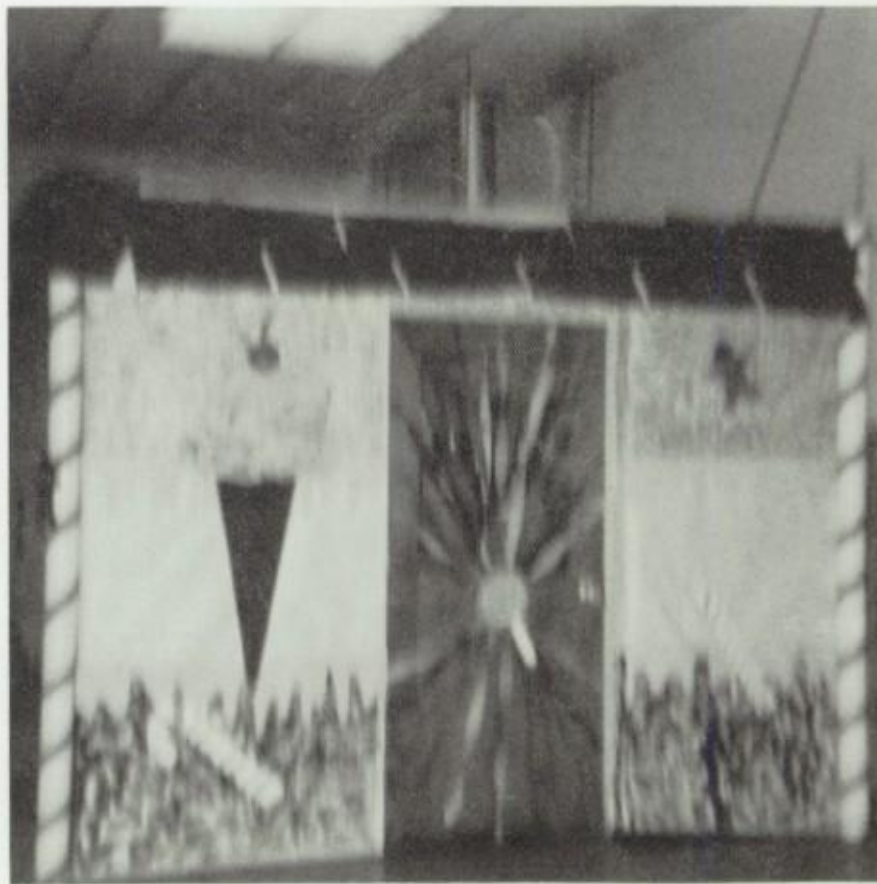

"I was born this way, what's your excuse??"

COMMENTS

Close calls in the restroom, the official three-day vacation, drag racer in front of the school, the 76th day, and the senior who called in to ask how many were absent, the parties we had when we skipped, sunshine, the husseling, the keggers, laughter, giving blood, thee gang nothing, getting a ticket for setting on the heater, D.C. trip, being told about the PDA's in the hall, getting chased off the heater so the teachers could sit on it, dreaming of vacation.

THE STUDENT PRAYER

Now I sit me down to study
 I pray the Lord I don't go nutty.
 And if I don't get all this junk
 I pray the Lord I do not flunk.
 And if I die don't bury me at all,
 Just place my bones in study hall.
 And place my books upon my chest
 And tell the teacher I did my best.

The desire and dedication displayed by this team has given the Ridge football reputation a real boost in the arm. Despite the losing record, many teams hobble off the field with a victory on the scoreboard, but with a new idea of Ridge football creaking in their bones.

This year the team led by first year coach, Tom Iagulli showed great improvement and desire to win which was proved by the high level of excitement shown at each game.

The student body would like to congratulate the team on their efforts put forth on being a great football team.

YEARBOOK

High school is the whirl of fall leaves swirling across a road at twilight.

It's a gold-plated megaphone dangling from a dainty chain.

It's buying all the latest fashions then baby-sitting.

It's meeting friends, watching the winning touchdown.

And experiencing the thrill and sweat of a locker room
after the struggle.

High school is cramming for an exam that you'd rather forget

It's a shiny bronze ring that catches the light.

And a charm bracelet with scattered memories.

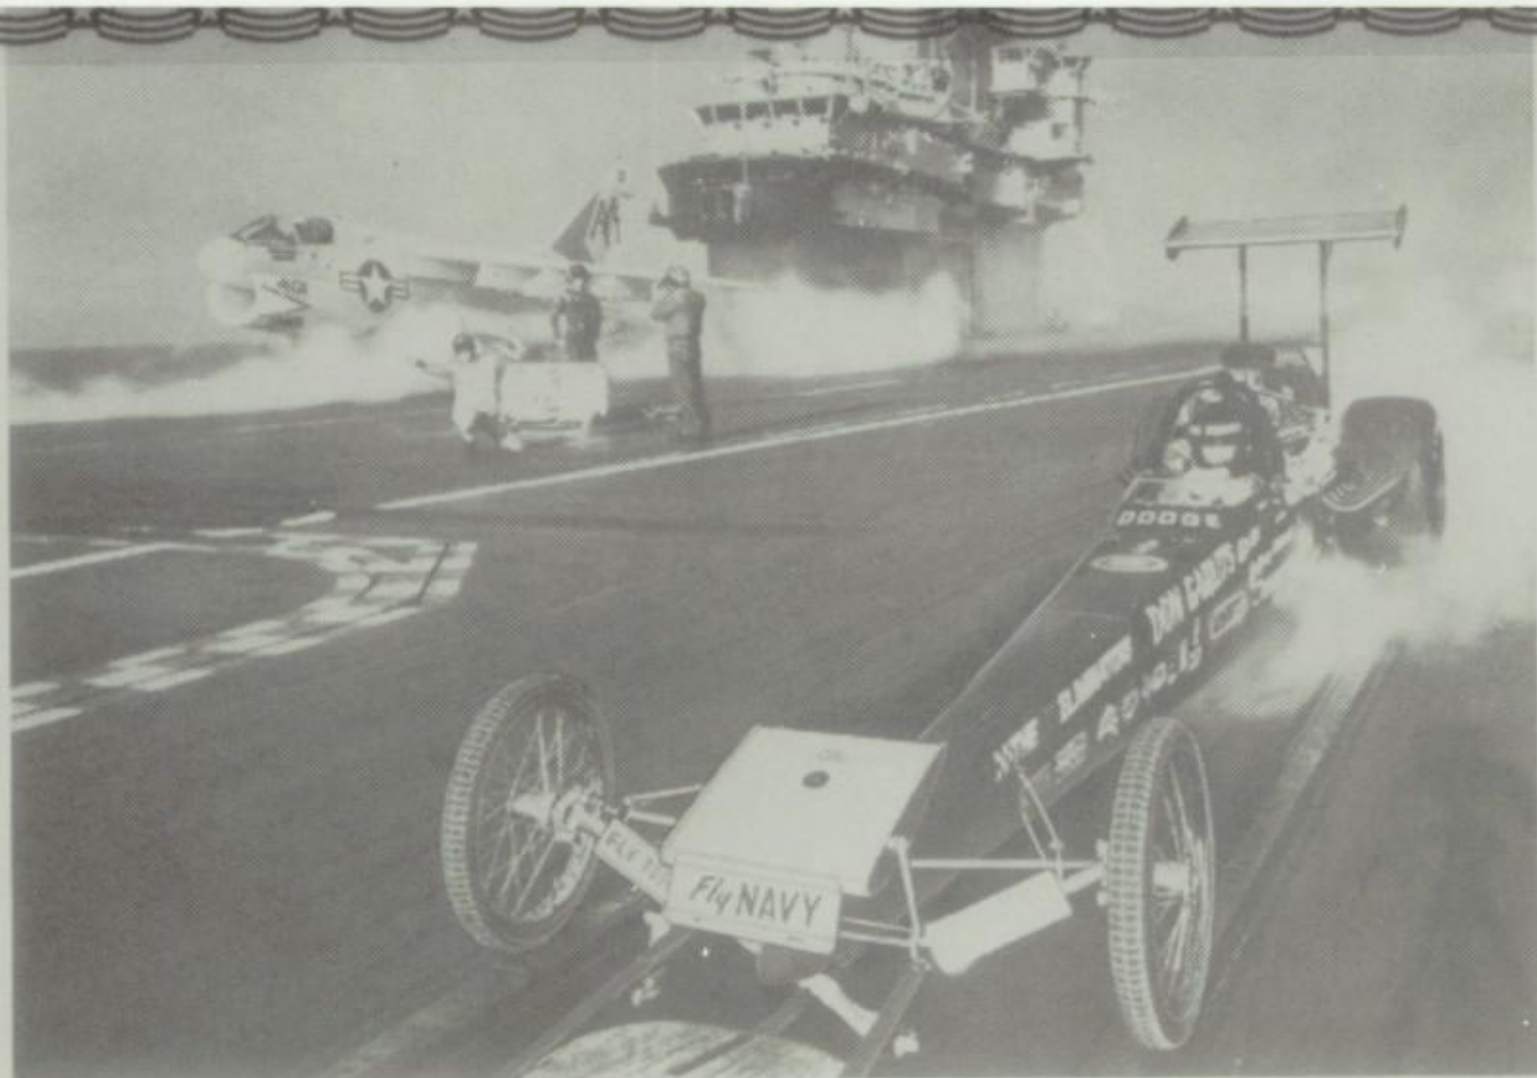

High school is growing up, and growing up is wishing you were young again.

“Get in the Winner’s Circle. Go Navy.”

Don Garlits—Professional Drag Racer

“Being a winner isn’t just limited to racing. And even though I was first to top 200 mph in drag racing, I’m very much aware that success is important—no matter what field you’re in. That’s why I talk to young men and women about the Navy. If you’ve got what it takes, you can choose one from over 70 career opportunities. Opportunities that can put you in the winner’s circle in fields like computers, electronics, communications... with job opportunities as wide as the imagination. From one end of the skill scale to another. Of course, you’ll have to work hard. But that’s what getting in the winner’s circle is all about. There’ll be benefits, too. Good pay. And a chance to see something of the world. And make your way in it, too. Right into the winner’s circle. Get started now. See your local recruiter and find out what you qualify for even before you enlist.”

WHEN WILL I SEE YOU AGAIN

Oh, precious moments

When will I see you again

When will we share precious moments

Will I have to wait forever

Will I have to suffer and cry the whole night through

When will I see you again

When will our hearts beat together

Are we in love or just friends

Is this my beginning or is this the end

When will I see you again

Oh, precious moments

Are we in love or just friends

Is this my beginning or is this the end

When will I see you again

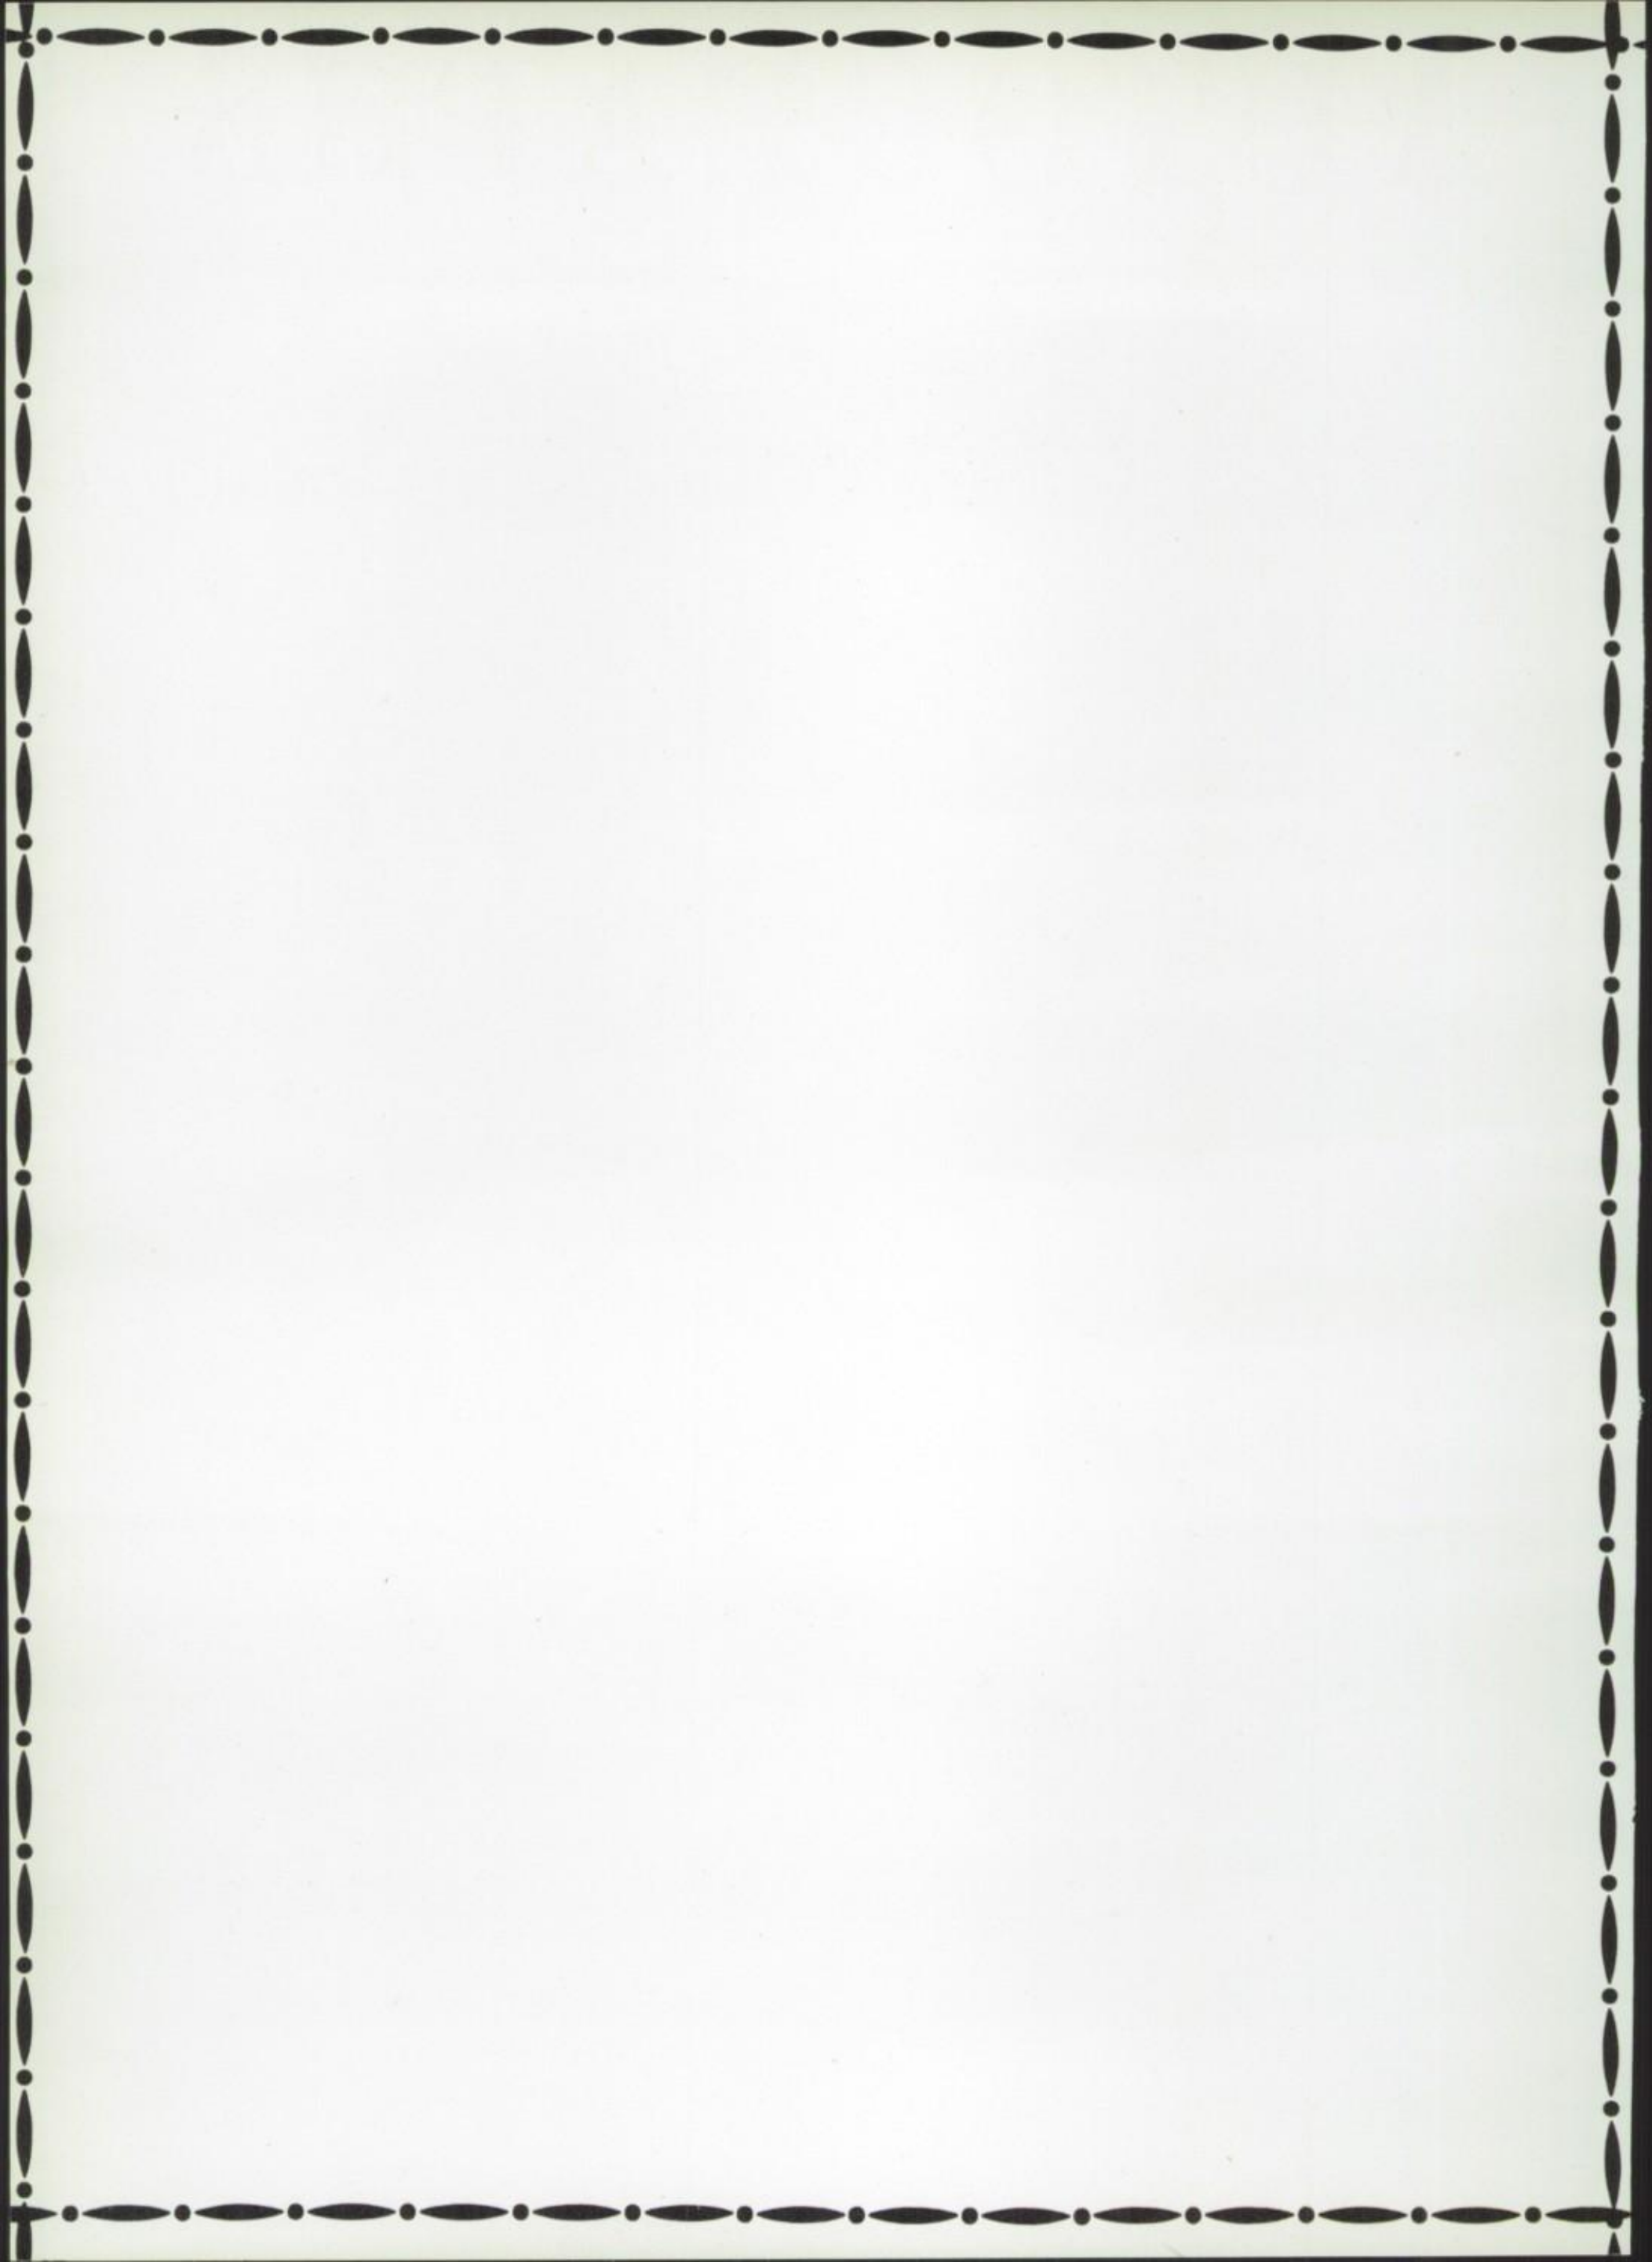

Sweet sweet love of mine

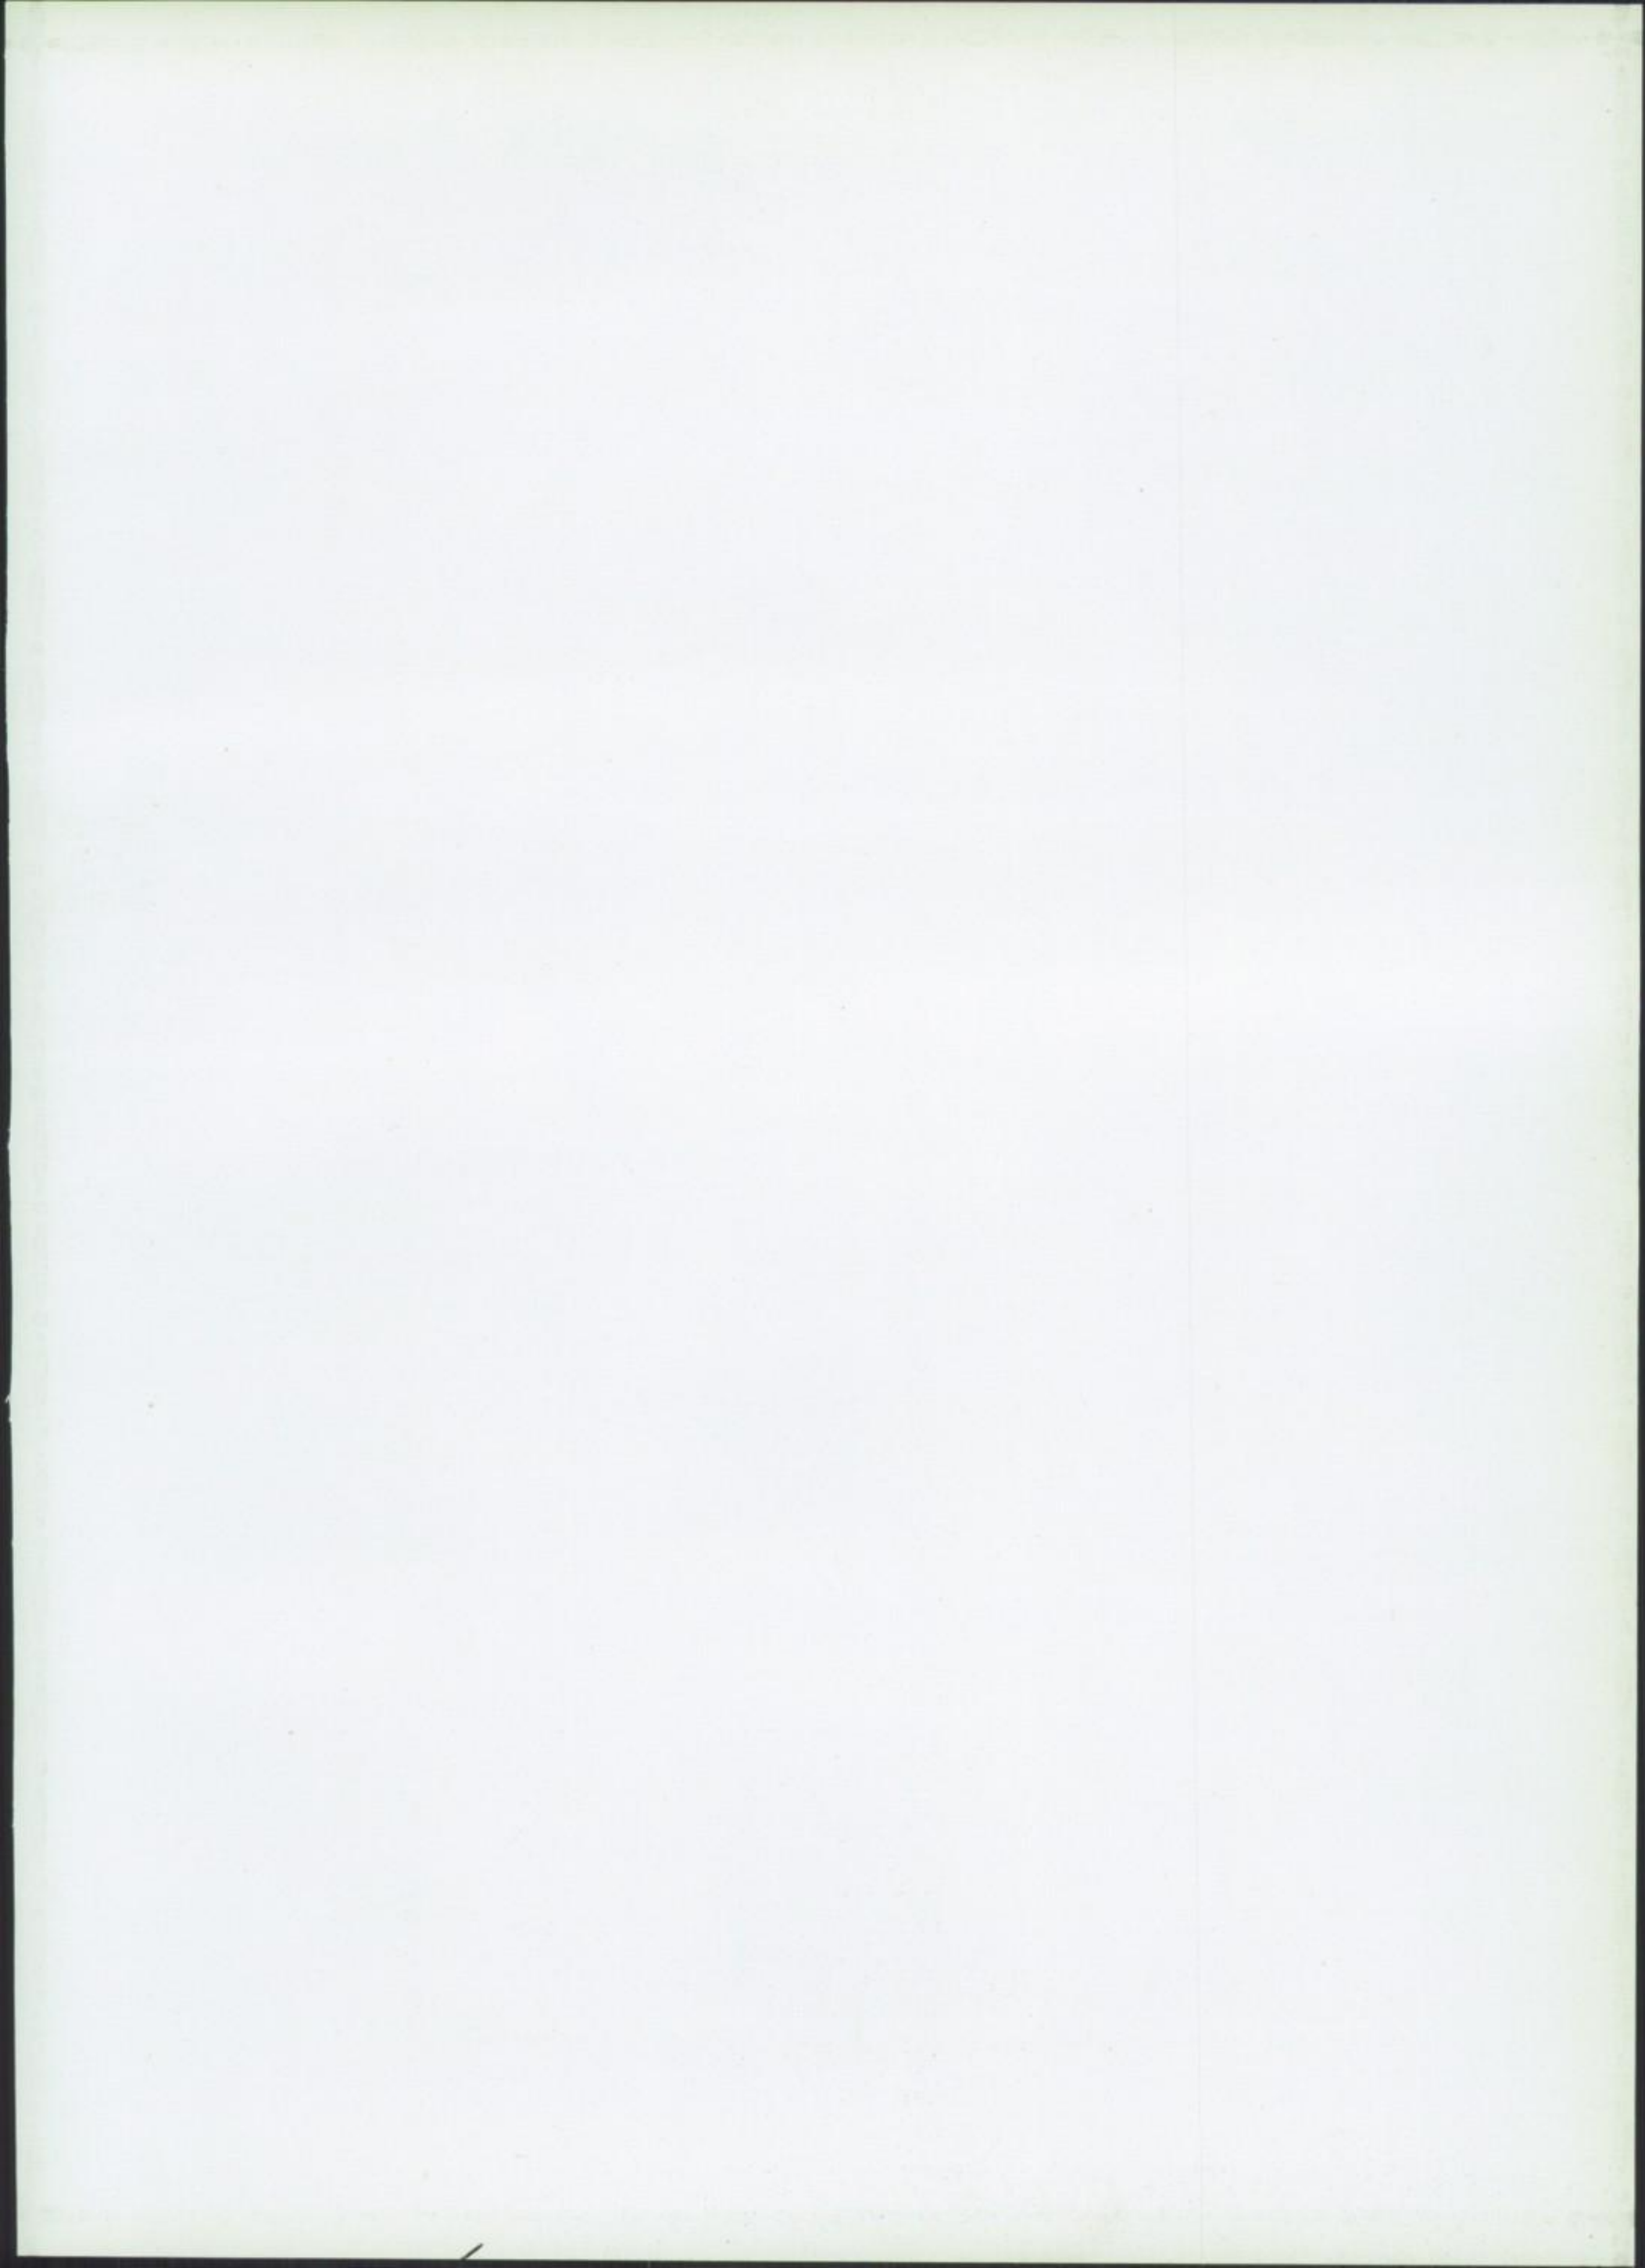

When will I see you again

Come on, come on
